

FAQs

? What is “Back to School Florida?”

Back to School Florida is an Sunshine-Review-sponsored project to bring the issue of Transparency to the forefront in Florida. Sunshine Review has concentrated its efforts in this state over the past months, collecting data, sending out FOIA request to local governments, and evaluating the level of Transparency within the Sunshine State. We chose the month of September, when so many are heading back to school, to provide information to Floridians not only about how Transparent their government bodies are, but also to educate them on how they can become Transparency Activists.

? What is Sunshine Review trying to accomplish with this?

Sunshine Review is educating Floridians about how they can become watchdogs over their state by utilizing Transparency, and our wiki website, as a way to spread information amongst the people.

? Who can get involved?

Anyone can get involved! Just visit www.SunshineReview.org and start browsing.

? What should I do?

Want to take it a step further? In just a few clicks, you can create a user ID for yourself and start adding information about your state. It's simple and we've provided a step-by-step plan for how you can become educated about your state.

? Why Florida?

Sunshine Review chose Florida as its first “Back to School” state after recent news showed that Floridians were starting to embrace Transparency, especially at the local levels. What better place to start Sunshine Review's most ambitious project yet than in the Sunshine State!
